

Deckhand – Oliver Brearley

Oliver is an Australian from the east coast who enjoys every aspect of the ocean. He is very passionate about fishing, surfing, golf and almost any outdoor activity or sport.

Spending so much time in the ocean, Oli is a very strong swimmer with excellent water knowledge, experienced watercrafts driver and a wealth of fishing knowledge.

Oli graduated from the University of Newcastle, where he studied Earth Science, before joining the yachting industry.

Olivers first yacht adventure was with the crew of Perle Bleue in the Mediterranean

He heard the Caribbean calling and went to join Grace on-board M/Y Galaxy. They worked together for two years and have come back for more adventures with the team on
Perle Bleue

His friendly and loveable personality is sure to make others around him have an enjoyable and unforgettable experience on board.